From the Pastor's Desk

Fifth Sunday of Easter

My dear people of God.

I give you a new commandment "Love one another".

Like the lawyer in Luke's Gospel (chapter 10), we want to ask who our neighbor is. Whom must we love?

Jesus knows how we think and tells us the story of the Good Samaritan, teaching us to be good neighbors to all. He calls this commandment to love "new" because He means for us to love all people without distinction. "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another".

How are we to love? Jesus modeled His kind of love when He washed the disciples' feet. Not only did He wash the feet of John or Peter. He even washed the feet of Judas, His betrayer.

Christ paid a great price to love us. It meant crucifixion and death on the Cross at Calvary. If we are to live by this new commandment we must undergo many trials, for this love makes as many demands upon us as it did upon Christ. We need to learn how to go about loving others for the sake of God because, in the evening of life, we will be judged on how well we have loved.

How do other people know that we are followers of Jesus?

It is easy to love those who are kind and loving towards us but Christian love calls us to do more than this.

Lord Jesus, you showed us how we should love and care for one another, may our love be a sign to bring others to know and love you, too.

Des del Escritorio del Pastor

Quinto Domingo de Pascua

Mi querida gente de Dios.

Les doy un mandamiento nuevo "Ámense los unos a los otros".

Como el abogado en el Evangelio de Lucas (capítulo 10), queremos preguntar quién es nuestro vecino. A quien debemos amar?

Jesús sabe como pensamos y nos dice la historia del Buen Samaritano, enseñándonos como ser buenos vecinos con toda la gente. Él llama a este mandamiento de amar "nuevo" porque Él quiere que nosotros amemos a todos por igual, sin distinciones. "Así como yo los he amado, así también ustedes deben amarse unos a los otros".

Como debemos amar? Jesús nos enseñó Su clase de amor cuando Él mismo lavó los pies de sus discípulos. Y no solamente lavó los pies de Juan ó Pedro, sino también lavó los pies de Judas, el que lo traiciono.

Cristo pagó un precio muy alto por habernos amado. Significó la crucifixión y muerte en la cruz en el camino del Calvario. Si tenemos que vivir este mandamiento nuevo, debemos pasar por muchas pruebas, porque este amor demanda mucho de nosotros, como lo hizo con Cristo. Necesitamos aprender como amar a los demás por amor a Dios porque en el atardecer de la vida, seremos juzgados en que tan bien hemos amado a los demás.

Como sabe la gente que nosotros somos seguidores de Jesús?

Es fácil amar a aquellos que son buenos y amorosos con nosotros, pero el amor Cristiano nos pide hacer más que esto.

Señor Jesús, tú que nos enseñaste como amarnos y cuidarnos los unos a los otros, haz que nuestro amor sea un ejemplo a seguir, para traer a los demás a que te conozcan y te amen a ti también.
